Hard Roads.

[illegible] hard roads [illegible] Township Committee. [illegible]

If the Township Committee would [illegible] the requests and consider the claims of all parts of the township and then apportion the money as seems most just, we believe that all reasonable people would acquiesce though some might be disappointed. [illegible]

[illegible] Bloomfield avenue [illegible] Broad street [illegible] Montgomery street, Washington street, Belleville avenue, Ridgewood avenue, and [illegible] Bloomfield Avenue, Broad street and Orange street, together with some streets in the immediate vicinity of the Centre, have already been macadamized. The paving of Broad street peculiarly benefited Brookside and the northern end of the township. Orange street benefited the people of Watsessing; the Centre has of course received a very large share of stone roads. It therefore seems that the roads that should receive the consideration of the Committee are these: Ridgewood avenue for the benefit of Glen Ridge; Montgomery street for the purpose of connecting our stone roads with those of Belleville; Franklin street below Race street for the benefit of Franklin Hill and Fairview District. The outlying districts through which these roads run [illegible] which they lead, have waited patiently for years for their turn, and certainly neither the Centre nor Watsessing, since they have already received so much attention, will find fault if the other sections now receive their share of the stone roads.

Most of all the roads which we have [illegible] for the [illegible] offer this additional advantage. They are [illegible] successful in Glen [illegible] Franklin street [illegible] Montgomery street [illegible] for their [illegible] and [illegible] dollars and [illegible] [illegible] as possible.

CRESCENT

Sarsaparilla

100 DOSES

50 CENTS.

Read the following remarkable quick cure from using Crescent Sarsaparilla. It is made by Mr. John W. Morse, who has been a member of the Police force for many years in Newark, and who is now Doorkeeper at Police headquarters.

NEWARK, N. J., March 19, 1887.

Crescent Drug Company.

GENTLEMEN: This is to certify that I have personally used your Crescent Sarsaparilla with great benefit to myself, and that my family, after using both Hood's and Ayer's Sarsaparilla without obtaining any benefit from either, have taken several bottles of your Crescent Sarsaparilla, and have been cured of Blood Disorders of long standing. I can conscientiously state that I consider your Crescent Sarsaparilla the best family medicine I have ever [illegible] known. I send you this testimonial as I think the public ought to know how good your medicine really is. You may use this letter as you think best; publish it in the newspapers if you wish. I am well known to a great number of Newarkers, and if any of my acquaintances [illegible] the need of a good, wholesome medicine I advise them to use Crescent Sarsaparilla.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN W. MORSE,
No. 16 Vine Street.

NOW READ THIS STATEMENT.

It is made by Mr. Joseph Farrer who is Manager of the West Park Street Apartment Home, Nos. 17 and 19 West Park Street, Newark. Mr. Fritts makes this statement voluntarily:

For several years past my sister-in-law, Mrs. Lena Lannon, who lives in Anthony, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, has suffered greatly with inflammatory rheumatism and nervous trouble, which finally run into St. Vitus Dance. She was regularly attended and prescribed for by the best physicians who decided after a long continued treatment that her case was incurable. The doctors advised a change of air and residence, stating that temporary relief might be obtained by such change, but that medicine could not do her any good. Mrs. Lannon left Anthony in the autumn of 1886, and came to Newark and took up her residence at my home. At this time her feet and limbs were so swollen with rheumatism that she could scarcely walk. Her nervous condition was very bad, and St. Vitus Dance caused her to twitch and shake constantly. Ague had also set in, and one night soon after Mrs. Lannon's arrival she was suffering so much that I determined to go a drug store and try and get some medicine to relieve her if possible. The Crescent Drug Store was the nearest store, and I went there. I talked the matter over with the druggist, and he persuaded me to buy a bottle of Crescent Sarsaparilla. In order to shorten this statement I will say that Mrs. Lannon used four bottles of Crescent Sarsaparilla, and within three months she became a well woman. She went back to her home, and she has had no return of her former disease; on the contrary, she is in perfect health and enjoys life (for the first time in several years), without pain and suffering. All her friends and relatives in Anthony were greatly surprised at her recovery, and can attest to the facts in her case. I consider her cure almost a miracle. Four bottles of Crescent Sarsaparilla cured Mrs. Lannon of Inflammatory Rheumatism, St. Vitus Dance and ague after her case had been pronounced hopeless and incurable by the best physicians in Hunterdon County.

Mr. E. Chenoweth, of the firm of Chenoweth Ward & Co., Nos. 371 and 373 Market Street, Newark, has authorized us to make the following statement for him:

Mr. Chenoweth has for a number of years past every spring been afflicted with Blood Disorder, which invariably developed into boils and irritating Eruption of the skin. He had tried numerous medicines and remedies, including Hood's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Sarsaparilla but never received any benefit or relief from their use. He began using Crescent Sarsaparilla [illegible] 1887, and at the present date [illegible] Market St., Newark, N. J.

MRS. LEE. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

MRS. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen; and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

MRS. LEE. "What is that?"

MRS. LEE. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation; but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I could pick up in a month by our occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine—the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits everymember of the family!"

MRS. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for if it is anything like what you say it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

MRS. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents; so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size, which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I must have a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."
